Dear Mr. McCarthy:

I have read your recent editorial, "Indecent Exposure," with more than passing interest. We at CIA greatly appreciate your objective treatment of the problem. I became so frustrated after seeing the bizarre treatment and free publicity given the author by the media in recent weeks that I wrote the attached article and sent it off to the WASHINGTON POST. As you will see we agree on a great many points.

We at the CIA don't want a whitewash of past wrongdoings. But we would like a chance to prove ourselves and move into the future.

Yours sincerely,

STANSFIELD TURNER
